

Program Overview

Two-Lifestyles, Inc., Sexual Abuse Awareness Class - # Now I Know is here to educate our women to parent and keep their children safe from any forms abuse. It is our goal as an agency to provide supportive services to women by engaging, encouraging, educating and empowering them to becoming a healthier parent. Please remember children are the future, we must keep them safe at all times.

Requirements

Each person will go through a one-time registration-screening process that would support them getting connected to the appropriate facilitator to help receive other needed services.

Each person is responsible for paying her registration fees prior to receiving any enrollment letter or progress note. All fees are NON-REFUNDABLE (Up to 15 Days to pay fee)

Each person will bring to the registration screening a copy of your driver license, current minute order, DCFS case plan or CFT services plan. (any document stating reason for referral)

Evaluation

After each class you are obligated to complete an anonymous evaluation form about what you learned in-group today. This is not an English or writing class we just need your honest feedback to better our program. So, ladies please feel free to be honest with your thoughts and experience.

Materials

Please bring your pen, highlighter and binder ready to work, learn and share different strategies for parenting after abuse.

Milestones

Pretest and Posttest Assessment

In measuring the effectiveness of our program in changing long standing myths and antidotal beliefs. Our assessment is designed to gather information at the beginning and end of the program. It is important to use your assessment that has pretest and posttest versions, which allow measurements of change without the bias of the practice effect.
